

REVOLUTION A2H

The entire revolution series packs the most power to weight ratio on the market today. This line is for use where air is the preferred source of power. It is modular in regards to repair parts with only valves, blocks, boxes and sub-assemblies which means lower spare parts inventory. The reservoirs are also designed to be leak-free.

VERSATILE

- Can be used for single or double-acting tools
- Four-tool manifold allows for use of up to four tools simultaneously
